

EISNER JOINS FIRST FEDERAL INVESTMENTS

Richard (Rick) Eisner has been named Investment Executive of First Federal Investments. His office is located at First Federal Bank of Louisiana's Nelson Financial Center, at 4090 Nelson Road in Lake Charles.

Eisner is a financial advisor and comes to First Federal Investments with ten years of industry experience with Edward Jones and most recently, Merrill Lynch. Eisner was recognized as one of the top young brokers nationwide for Edward Jones and has received numerous awards. He holds the professional designation of Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor, received from the College of Financial Planning. He holds securities registrations, in addition to insurance licenses for life, health and annuities, and is also registered as an Investment Adviser Representative (IAR) with PRIMEVEST. Rick believes that a close relationship with each client is needed to implement and monitor the investment approach that he and his client design.

Rick was raised in Lake Charles, LA where he graduated from St. Louis High School and attended McNeese State University. He then served our country by joining the Navy where he specialized in Naval Intelligence for four years. After serving in the Navy and graduating from the University of Maryland with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business, he returned to Lake Charles to begin his career in the financial services industry.

Rick's interests include tennis and golf, which he enjoys regularly. He and his wife Amy are the proud parents of three children. The Eisner family is very active in their church and enjoys many sporting activities together, especially coaching his children's basketball and soccer teams.
